ures give some idea of the remarkable growth of the work.

Full details are given concerning the Sunday school periodicals and other publications of the board, of its relations to the Seminary, to the B. Y. P. U, and to the State boards.

The report closed with a ringing appeal for enlargement.

Home and Foreign Missions.

Home and Foreign Missions.

Rev. Dr. B. D. Gray, secretary, read the report of the Home Mission Board. This report showed total receipts of $167,800.88, an increase of over 21 per cent, over last year. The board has property at various points in its fields valued at $135,306.6. It employed, in whole or in part, $38 missionaries. Various departments of work are discussed in detail, and shown to be in a prosperous condition. The board suggests that the convention undertake a general scheme of evangelization.

chonic of evangelization.

the report of the Foreign Mission Board.

The report gives an expression of thanksgiving for the divine blessing on the work committed to it. The aggregate of the gifts to the board are $515,248.48, against $233,415.88 last year. A large number of young mon and women are applying for appointment to the foreign field—more than in any former year. The report here gives a brief outline of the situation in China, Africa, Japan, Brazil, Iuliy, Mexico, Argentina; in all of which countries the board has flourishing missions. Sixteen new missionaries have been sent out during the convention year. Eleven others are under appointment. There have been no deaths among missionaries during the year. Six marriages are reported, Various changes in the personel of the board are noted. Chief among these is the retrement of Rev. E. E. Bonnar from the position of assistant corresponding secretary which he had done admirable work. Rev. William H. Smith, D. D., has been chosen to this office, and has entered upon his work.

The treasurer's report shows the fellowing receipts:
Alebama, 330,205.62; Arkansas, 35,764.4;
District of Columbia, 11,821.66; Florida, 34,871.81; Georgia, $2,927.69; Indian Terifory, 5722.74; Kentucky, $29,620.36; Louisiana, 36,455.99; Maryland, 45,990.77; Missispipi, $20,289.85; Missouri, 31,227.68; North Carolina, $28,702.37; Tennessee, 318,493.46; Texas, $26,229.18; Virginia, $40,779.79, and from other sources $4,562.51; making a grand total of $315,248.81. The total liabilities of the board are $28,151.27.

Items of Special Interest.

The Sunday School Board at Nashville has again this year kindly contributed $2,000 for the work.

We appreciate the great help which is given us in the work by the editors of our denominational papers. A paper which is thoroughly missionary is a blessing Diessing.

The American Baptist Publication Society, of Philadelpha, has again generously given $100 this year for the Bible work in foreign lands. work in foreign lands.

Work of Dr. Graves.

April 19, 1966, marked the fiftieth Miniversary of Dr. R. H. Graves' going to China. The missionaries who have been laboring with him in Canton, made a suggestion to the board that we celebrate this occasion by naming the Theological Training School in Canton the Graves' Theological Seminary, and the board has gladly taken this action, and has deeded to put $5,000 in the seminary building. We hope that source brother who loves the work, and who, while living here in the home land, has been hiessed, will weave his life work in with that of Dr. Graves' by giving the $5,000 for this seminary building.

Our people at the convention will be glad to see with us Dr. E. Z. Simmons who went out to China thirty-six years ago. Dr. Simmons had to return home on account of his eyes. We refolce to know that he has been successfully operated on, his eyesight being restored. In due course of time he expects to return to his work in China.

The board has received during the year a gift from Mrs. P. S. Ramseur, Paris, Texas, for $5,000, half of which was for the general work.

Hon. J. C. Bush, of Mobile, Ala., has contributed $10,000 for buying land and putting up buildings for the Theological Seminary in Hwanghlen, China. Brother Bush makes this gift in memory of his father and mother, and the institute will hereafter be known as the "Bush Theological Seminary."

The convention has now in foreign lands 214 churches, 372 out stations, 189 missionaries, 71 ordanned autive preachers, 223 mative helpers, 114 houses of worship, 12,801 members. Contributions from these churches reached last year the gratifying sum of $25,104.57.

The report closed with a ringing appeal for advance on every line.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS. Convention Adopts Paper Condemning Lynching. (Special to The Times-Dispaten.)

CHATTANOOGA, TENN., May 11.—
pon the completion of the reports of Open the completion of the convention de-boards the president of the convention detorical sketch of the work of the convention.

President Stephens declared that the past year had been the greatest in the history of the Haptists, and that the prospects of the denomination were never so bright. He suggested the name of Lookout Mountain as the keynote of the convention. He referred in warm terms to the principle of soul liberty for which Haptists stand, and claimed that denomination to have been the ploneers of that principle in America. He said the number of Eaptists in the world is 0,000,000, of whom 5,000,001 are in America. 4,000,000 of them in the South. The number of white Baptists represented by the convention was nearly 2,000,000. The white Baptists of the South own $25,000,000 of church property and have $10,000,000 invested in education. There are 20,000 churches. Special attention was called to the Baptist General Convention of North America, organized in St. Louis in May, 1905, and the World's Congress held in London in August last, and also to the unusually large conventions in the various States during the year. This all indicates, he said, growth in numbers and organization and fraternalism.

mountain districts and among the immigrants was strongly urged, and also that vigorous work be done among the negroes by the improvement of their ministry and a general evaluedical work among them. Attention was called to the rapid growth of the South and to the urgent necessity of a strong evangelical movement in that section. To this end it was suggested that in evangeled fund be provided for the support of an army of evangelists to go out among the people. It was also recommended that a missionary enlistener fund be established, whereby missionaries may be recruited from the churches and more churches may be brought into co-operation with missionary work.

Education Commission.

There are in the South, he said, 103 institutions under the control of white Bantists. Of them lifty-two are universities and colleges and lifty-one academics and institutions. Twenty-nine are endowed in the total sum of $3,030.08. The total value of buildings and grounds and equipment is $5,69,443. Over 1,000 teachers and about 20,000 students attend these institutions. He recommended that an educational commission be organized to strengthen weak colleges and establish others, urging that Baptist institutions teach Baptist principles and be distinctively Baptistic in their influence. The federation of college was recommended as feasible in many States.

The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary at Louisville has an endowment of $50,000 and an attendance of 253 students and an income of $44,000. It was suggested that this endowment be increased to $1,000,000 by the time of the celebration of the seminary's semi-centennial in 1909. It was urged that all colleges elaming to be Baptist be careful to eliminate all of this heretical tendencies of the times and that the Bible be taught in the purity. Special attention was directed to the Sunday School Board located at Nasivylle, casiabilished in 1827, and doing an annual business of nearly $160,000 and the improvement of existing methods.

Since 1858, when the Woman's Missionary Union was organized, it has contributed $1,000,000 to insistons, equally divided between home and foreign missions, and it was urged that chairs for the training of women in Christian service be estabilished in Baptist colleges.

An increase in the salaries of pastors of churches was urged, as also that there stewardship be organized, and that every thing be done to secure an enlarged benevolence. The importance of improvement in church architecture and of more eligible locations for churches was suggested, and good roads mentioned as bearing most closely upon the prosperity of churches in the rural districts. A vigorous work was advised in the great cities, and it was also urged that more attention be paid to the development of country churches to the end that they may have preaching often and more vigilant pastoral service. Baptist were urged to stand everywhere for civic righteousness, for the sanctity of the home, for temperance, for the enforcement of the law and against the growing tide of Sabbath desecration.

The president closed his address with a glowing reference to the prospects of the South and its opportunities for religious work. The inflow of immigration, the opening of the Panama candithe deep waterways and the splendid ressources of the South, he said, afforded reason for the prophesy that at no distant date the South is to be a agreater center of influence, and that the work of the convention was to bear an important relation to the progress of this section.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch).

CHATTANOOGA, TENN., May II.—At night the principal feature of the convention exercises was the annual sermon by Rev. Dr. W. R. L. Smith, of Richmond. It was a fine, strong, thoughtful fiscourse, and was well delivered. Dr. Smith said in part:

Peter's question bore on the future of the child and the committed hibraries of the principle that men who have the child themselves loyally to his will be committed hibraries of the principle that men who will themselves loyally to his will read the fight to know something of the benefits that are to follow. Men's plus cannot disport themselves energially to his will an atmosphere of gloom and the Master's kingdom require that he shall have newer to inspire his servants with a vast hope and resource to give subbline compensations. But the question blinted at calculation, and suggested compilance with the letter, rather than with the spirit of a divine command. Men who act all. Religious reward is re-based on the fact or the amount of sacrifice, but on the motive that prompt of sacrifice, but on the fact or the amount of sacrifice, but on the atmiling place in the confidence of the Son of God. His servants shall sit on tarnes of God. His servants shall sit on tarnes of God. His servants shall sit on tarnes of the world. We are individuely them for the finest spiritual leadership the world has known. Our message blends with a balm of Glod. We are individuely place, which is honor enough to satisfy the ambitions of the world. We are individuely the motive that has been a discounted to the conception of a divine fatherhood, and by consequence of the satisfy the ambitions of the business of a common devotion to himself. He did not expect his disciples to hecome of the busis of a common devotion to himself. He did not expect his disciples to hecome a man and
